

KITAB AT-TAWHEED

THE BOOK OF MONOTHEISM - STUDY SYLLABUS & COMMENTARY

By Imam Muhammad ibn Abd al-Wahhab | Commentary by Sheikh Muhammed Ferej Megeno

COURSE OVERVIEW & SCHOLARLY METHODOLOGY

Kitab At-Tawheed is one of the most fundamental classical texts studied across the Islamic world, focusing on clarifying pure Tawheed (Monotheism), its categories, nullifiers, and protective boundaries. In this audio-lecture series delivered in Addis Ababa, Sheikh Muhammed Ferej Megeno methodically explains each chapter, bringing out practical applications for modern believers and Ethiopian communities.

Key Themes Covered:

1. The Purpose of Creation and the Rights of Allah over His Servants
2. The Excellence of Tawheed and Sins Expiated by Sincere Monotheism
3. Protection Against Hidden Shirk, Amulets, and Superstitions
4. Seeking Blessings (Tabarruk) in Light of the Quran and Sunnah
5. The Obligation of Slaughtering Exclusively in the Name of Allah
6. Intercession (Shafa'ah) - Affirmed vs. Prohibited Forms
7. Sincerity in Intention (Ikhlas) and Steadfastness upon the Sunnah
